THE SPIRIT OF BOMA'S 2022 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE & EXPO

"Standing on the shoulders of giants" ...how does that apply in your life? As it did for Sir Isaac Newton, this motto encapsulates the value in drawing on the inspiration and understanding of those gone before you. I hold this sentiment close as my greatest achievements and success have been realized as a result of mentors and leaders who have paved the way before me. This is the spirit of the BOMA International Conference & Expo.

Click below to learn the top five reasons why Tiyana Smallegan, an emerging professional in the Commercial Real Estate Industry, upheld this spirit at the Annual Conference & Expo.

Thank you Tiyaana for providing this educational content, and congratulations again on winning the J. Michael Coleman Scholarship for Emerging Professionals!
