Carlos M. Quiñones, SNI: The National Institute for Scientific Information has been a partner of this event since 2009. His expertise in the field of information science and technology includes data management, digital libraries, and information retrieval.

For more information on the event, please visit www.csiresource.com. The conference is scheduled for April 10-12, 2017, in Saint Petersburg, FL.

CDRA Newsletter

Vol. 4, No. 1

C&D Recycling Facility Safety Manual Available

The Construction & Demolition Recycling Association has prepared the first C&D Recycling Facility Safety Manual Available. The manual provides facility operators the basic knowledge necessary to develop a safety manual specifically for mixed C&D recycling facilities. Created by the CDRA Safety Committee, the manual contains 16 chapters covering topics such as general safety, training, and emergency procedures.

The manual is available for free to all CDRA members, who can download the manual at www.cdrecycling.org. It is a valuable resource for C&D recyclers now. An economic update will be provided by Eli Lustgarten, a leading economic consultant in the industry.

CDRA World 2017

CDRA World, the Annual Meeting of the CDRA, is the meeting place for the C&D recycling industry. The event is scheduled for Oct. 17-19, 2017, at the Westin Cincinnati. The event will include excellent presentations from industry experts and a tour of a top-notch shingle recycling facility and a hot mix plant using the RAS. Anyone interested in shingle recycling should plan on attending this event organized by the E-Source Group.

This is a dynamic event that brings current and future producers of bioenergy and biobased products together. The event is scheduled for April 10-12, 2017, at the Minneapolis Convention Center in Minneapolis, MN. This event is organized by BBI International and produced by Biomass Magazine. It is available for free to all CDRA members, who can download the manual at www.cdrecycling.org. It is a valuable resource for C&D recyclers now. An economic update will be provided by Eli Lustgarten, a leading economic consultant in the industry.

For more information on how to renew your company’s 2017 dues, or to learn more about the CDRA’s efforts to help C&D recyclers, or even to become a member of the association, please visit www.cdrecycling.org.

CDRA Membership Renewal & Great Value

Do you want to remain a member of the CDRA? Then you should consider renewing your membership now. The deadline for renewing your membership is Dec. 31, 2016.

By renewing your membership, you will receive a membership package that includes a CDRA membership card, a CDRA newsletter, and a CDRA membership brochure. You will also receive a CDRA membership deck, which includes a CDRA membership certificate and a CDRA membership badge.

CDRA members also receive a host of other benefits, such as access to the CDRA’s website, a CDRA membership directory, and a CDRA membership newsletter. In addition, CDRA members can take advantage of the CDRA’s membership discounts, which include discounts on CDRA events, CDRA publications, and CDRA membership services.

For more information on how to renew your company’s 2017 dues, or to learn more about the CDRA’s efforts to help C&D recyclers, or even to become a member of the association, please visit www.cdrecycling.org.

CDRA Awards Applications Bing Accepted

CDRA awards are given to individuals and organizations that have made significant contributions to the C&D recycling industry. The CDRA awards are open to all CDRA members, and the deadline for submitting applications is March 31, 2017.

The CDRA awards include: the CDRA Executive of the Year award, the CDRA Recycler of the Year award, the CDRA Manufacturer of the Year award, the CDRA Manager of the Year award, the CDRA Education Award, and the CDRA Volunteer of the Year award.

Nominees for the CDRA awards will be selected by the CDRA executive committee. Nomination forms are available at www.cdrecycling.org. Please visit the CDRA website for more information on the awards.

For more information on how to renew your company’s 2017 dues, or to learn more about the CDRA’s efforts to help C&D recyclers, or even to become a member of the association, please visit www.cdrecycling.org.

CDRA Member News

Feb. 3, 2017

The CDRA is pleased to announce the following member news:

- Broad Run Recycling
- MBL Recycling
- Zanker Recycling
- Lakeshore Recycling
- General Kinematics
- Roadrock Recycling
- Waste Management

For more information on our members, please visit www.cdrecycling.org.