MEMBER spotlight

Louis Robinett, MD

Rheumatology

As a rheumatologist, Dr. Louis Robinett often works in shades of gray—sorting through complex data and subtle clues to uncover the right diagnosis. He enjoys the challenge of piecing together these medical puzzles and finds great reward in helping patients gain clarity and relief.

Reflecting on his career, Dr. Robinett emphasizes an early lesson he learned as he began clinical practice.

“Patients are the object of our profession, not our obstacle,” he notes. “Working with people can be challenging, but it’s also where we find the deepest meaning in our work.” Read more.

Sip, Savor, Support

Lirios Pediatrics invites you to an evening of connection, community, and purpose at Juliet Italian Kitchen (Austin, TX). On Friday, October 24th at 5:30 PM, enjoy drinks and small bites while supporting our mission to build a healthier future for uninsured children in Texas.

As the only free clinic in Texas exclusively serving uninsured children, your participation helps ensure access to life-changing medical and mental healthcare. Sponsorships are available at multiple levels—from Bronze ($500) to Platinum ($5,000)—each offering recognition and meaningful impact, such as funding well-child exams, vaccinations, and sick visits for patients in need.

To learn more, purchase tickets, or secure your sponsorship, click here or contact Lirios Pediatrics at Lirios@liriospediatrics.org. Together, let's create change for Texas children.

You May Have Unclaimed Funds

A quick search of a few physician/group names found $400, $2000, and even $20,000 in unclaimed checks. Most of these are checks from insurance companies just waiting for you to claim them. After searching for your name, search for your business name using multiple abbreviations such as Aus for Austin, or Cap for Capitol.

Other examples of property that can become abandoned are: dividend, payroll, and cashier's check; stocks, mutual fund accounts, and bonds; utility deposits and other refunds; bank accounts and safe deposit box contents; and insurance proceeds.

Unclaimed Property can be any financial asset that appears to have been abandoned by the owner for more than one year. Some examples of property that can become abandoned are:

- Dividend, payroll or cashier's checks
- Stocks, mutual fund accounts, bonds
- Utility deposits and other refunds
- Bank accounts and safe deposit box contents
- Insurance proceeds
- Mineral interest or royalty payments
- Court deposits, trust funds, escrow accounts

Find unclaimed property in Texas by visiting https://claimittexas.org/. This site will also link you to unclaimed property in the other states.

What You Need to Know About Early Onset Colorectal Cancer

The Committee on Cancer created one-pagers (one for patients, one for physicians) focused on early onset colorectal cancer to increase education and awareness of the increasing rates of colorectal cancer in young adults, particularly those under the recommended screening age of 45. These one-pagers also encourage physicians and patients not to dismiss symptoms of colorectal cancer because they are young. Click the link below to access the one-pagers.

TexMed 2026

April 16-18, 2026, Corpus Christi

Poster Session Application

TexMed 2026 is proud to continue offering a poster session as part of the conference agenda. This popular event allows TMA members to present their research to an audience of medical leaders and peers. Participating in the poster session is an excellent way to meaningfully engage with fellow attendees. All accepted posters will be presented Saturday, April 18 from 7:30 – 8:30 am, at the American Bank Convention Center in Corpus Christi.

One poster will be awarded a “People's Choice Award” by conference attendees. Voting will take place during the conference, and the winner will be recognized during the Closing Session on Saturday afternoon.
