Inside Story: Andreia Mordido's experience as a CMU Portugal Visiting Faculty & Researcher

Andreia Mordido, Invited Assistant Professor at Faculdade de Ciências da Universidade de Lisboa (FCUL) was hosted by Professor Frank Pfenning of CMU's Computer Science Department.

It was an extraordinary experience. Joining a new research group, with its own dynamics, with well-defined and synchronized working methods, and with relevant research topics in the community of programming languages, was as challenging as it was enriching. For me, it was extremely helpful and rewarding. (Andreia Mordido)
