To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to.

Stanford, CA | 94305 United States

Manage

Share this email:

COMMUNITY PARTNER HIGHLIGHTS:

Health; Faculty Director, Stanford Medicine Office of Community Engagement

Panelists:

be submitted at the time of registration. Please submit your questions preparing the public to return to normalcy safely in the age of coronavirus.

Together with Stanford researchers, administrators, and local leaders will share their work on seek routine healthcare, return to school (K-12 and higher education), or back to work?

Having been sheltering in place since mid-March, our local community is eager to return to some happen.

First responders in New York City while supporting the kitchen staff and fitness instructors that make it time. If you are interested in donating to this amazing effort, you can donate thru Venmo weekly virtual yoga classes to these healthcare workers to help them destress during this challenging.

Partnerships in the Division of Primary Care and Population Health, directed by Dr. Jonathan Shaw.

(testing capacity, in part, comes from a partnership with Stanford University's Office of Community needed to continue providing services to their workers.

Marroquin, Executive Director, of the center is asking communities for additional funding that is qualify for unemployment or other forms of income other than working in manual labor. Maria boxes and tote bags of information, kids' activities, and other supplies each week.

(i.e., isolation, depression, diabetes, hypertension), it is needing to ramp up bigger and faster than work virtual. Given that its work addresses so many of the crises that this pandemic is worsening needed to continue providing services to their workers.

Lisa Goldman Rosas, PhD, MPH

In Community,

We are dedicating this issue of the OCE Newsletter to highlight the work that our community you are making to stay home, protect yourselves and others is very much appreciated. At OCE On behalf of our office we would like to thank the dedicated healthcare and essential workers

How is the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak impacting you and your community?

Please complete a short survey today so we can help you and your community!