What's new at the David Eccles School of Business?

Jeffrey Gelder Lewis Northwestern Mutual Eccles Business Open

The annual golf tournament was on August 6. Thank you to all of our sponsors and those who participated! We raised $85,000 in scholarships for Eccles students. The fun day included a shopping spree at the Cobra Puma concept shop, golfing contests, a silent auction, lunch, awards, and more! To hear more about the tournament from our title sponsor and golf committee chair, Jeff Lewis: click here.

The 28th Annual Spencer Fox Eccles Convocation

We hope you'll join us Monday, September 10th at 11:00 a.m. for the opportunity to hear a keynote address from Gail Miller, Owner and Chairman of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies. Gail and her late husband Larry started their business with a single Toyota dealership in 1979 and now employ more than 10,000 people through the privately-owned Larry H. Miller Group of Companies.

Please RSVP by September 6 to rsvp@eccles.utah.edu.

Alumni Speaker Series - Dan Liljenquist

The David Eccles School of Business was honored to host Dan Liljenquist, Intermountain Healthcare's Vice President of Enterprise Initiatives, at the most recent Alumni Speaker Series event. He discussed Project Rx, a proposed solution for the overpriced pharmaceutical market. Read more or watch Dan's full presentation below.

Lassonde Studios awarded LEED Gold building certification

The Lassonde Entrepreneur Institute announced today that Lassonde Studios – a new five-story, student innovation space – has been awarded LEED Gold certification. The LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) rating system, developed by the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC), is the foremost program for buildings, homes and communities that are designed, constructed, maintained and operated for improved environmental and human health performance.
