On the Cover
Classes are now underway at the Peabody and we are so excited to see our returning students! Dr. Donald Slater, History and Social Science faculty (pictured here), shows his students a black-on-white, ceramic pitcher from the Pueblo Bonito site in northern New Mexico during his History 300 class. Take a closer look at this ceramic pitcher in our Peabody online collections.

3D Printing and Human Origins
Contributed by Ryan Wheeler
Students in Human Origins—an interdisciplinary science elective—visited with Claudia Wessner, Oliver Wendell Holmes Library Makerspace guru—who introduced the class to our hominin 3D printing project. Read on for more about this project!

Hopping into the Collection
Contributed by Mark Taylor
There’s a new frog pendant hopping into the Peabody collection. Learn more about how this donated artifact came to the Peabody and its journey through the Peabody collection’s accessioning process.

New Art at the Peabody
Contributed by John Bergman-McCool
We are pleased to announce that the Peabody has installed an interactive artwork by Jonny Yates (aka Jonny White Bull). Jonny is a member of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe and lives in McLaughlin, South Dakota. Read on to learn more about this amazing piece of art and its installation.
