Dear Tiger,

As the leaves begin to change colors and the days grow shorter, we hope you and your family are enjoying the fall season. We want to keep you updated on some important events and resources here on campus.

Did you know that all full-time students have a membership to UREC facilities and free GroupX classes? They are also eligible to register for Intramural Sports. To learn more, visit the LSU Recreation & Entertainment website. University College: Your one-stop shop to help you navigate life on campus.

When you make a gift to the LSU Parent Fund, you invest in your student’s opportunity to have a world-class education. LSU Foundation: Our mission is to improve the quality of life for students and their families. Check out the LSU Foundation donor stories page to learn how your contributions make a difference.

During our spring and summer orientation sessions, many families of first-year students wrote letters to their Tiger. We are proud of the personal touches delivered those letters to the residence halls during the first two weeks of Fall semester. We hope they helped the new students feel welcome and connected.

We encourage students to become more civically engaged. For example, LSU Political Science senior Cameron St. John was named a 2018-2019 Public Voices Fellow, and LSU Political Communication senior William Williamson was named a 2018-2019 Public Voices Fellow.

While these are only a few highlights, the breadth of these programs and initiatives is truly impressive. That’s why LSU Tigers are so successful even while they’re still in school. A few examples: LSU Chemical Engineering (ChE) senior Grant Landwehr is working with Professor Adam Melvin to determine why cancer cells spread throughout the human body, while ChE senior Grant Landwehr is studying metastatic breast cancer cells to develop new treatments.

That’s why LSU Tigers are so successful even while they’re still in school. As an LSU student, you have access to a wide range of resources and opportunities to help you succeed. Whether you’re looking to alleviate financial stress and lay a fiscal foundation for your future or want to become more civically engaged, there’s something for everyone.

As always, thank you for trusting us with your Tiger. We look forward to seeing you on campus soon.
