The Peabody

THE ROBERT S. PEABODY INSTITUTE OF ARCHAEOLOGY

Peabody Newsletter APRIL 2022

On the Cover

Between 1954 and 1977, the Society for the Propagation of Japanese Cherry Trees planted more than 100 cherry trees on Phillips Academy's campus. Today, many of these cherry trees still exist and Andover welcomes the Spring season with the blossoming of these cherry trees on campus. Fourteen of these ornamental cherry trees grow right behind the Peabody, along Phillips Street.

This month we have been focused on sharing - from our exploration of ethnographic photos to our work with NAGPRA... and even an exciting loan to The Smithsonian!! Read our various posts to learn more!

Beyond NAGPRA/Not NAGPRA
