Contents of this Month's Update

- Basis for enhancing 21st-century security practices while protecting the public from potential threats.
- Vendor can be given proof of a person's age without revealing other key biometric information.
- Higher rates of error in identifying women, or how a cigarette can be identified.
- Questions about privacy and bias, such as whether there are opportunities, such as establishing kinship.
- It also raises important challenges for criminal investigation.
- It presents new opportunities for criminal investigation.
- It raises new questions about the constitutionality of current practices.
- It raises new challenges for criminal investigation.

Distinguished Speaker Series

- Gratchen Peters: “How Organized Crime Weaponized Social Media” - Wednesday, October 13 - Hybrid, in-person
- Lindsey Robertson: “Human Trafficking” - Tuesday, December 7 - Hybrid, in-person

You're invited to submit articles, photos, videos, and story ideas to include in upcoming updates. Visit our website's digital archive to view research and news. Learn about the FARO partnership. Stay Connected.