A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Students, Faculty, and Staff,

As we approach the end of the semester, I want to take this opportunity to reflect on the resilience and adaptability of our Tiger community during this challenging time. Despite the unprecedented circumstances, our students, faculty, and staff have responded with creativity, determination, and a commitment to excellence.

Our virtual classes have continued to foster learning and engagement in new and innovative ways. By adapting to remote learning environments, students and instructors have demonstrated an remarkable ability to maintain academic rigor while ensuring the health and well-being of our community.

I encourage you to continue celebrating the work of our students, faculty, and staff through our Virtual Graduation Celebration. It is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the Class of 2020.

Stay Active at Home Resource Page:

If you find it hard staying active at home, there are many resources available to you. The LSU Center for Academic Success Online: CAS Online offers online resources through the LSU Division of Student Affairs. You can explore various ways to prepare for the big day, then join our Virtual Graduation Celebration. For more information about how to create your account, please visit our website.

I am looking forward to the day when we can gather to celebrate the Class of 2020 for the second LSU Giving Day. LSU Alumni Association: LSU Alumni Association is offering a 15 percent discount on tuition and fees for the summer term. Please consider applying to LSU Alumni Association to celebrate the Class of 2020 for the second LSU Giving Day. On April 22, the Tiger community came together to uplift each other and celebrate the Class of 2020.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to our community. Together, we can make a difference.

Sincerely,

Thomas C. Galligan, Jr.
