A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear LSU Community,

As we navigate the unprecedented challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, it is clear that the entire LSU community contributes to a better college experience and, we'll thrive as one LSU community. At LSU, what makes us necessary, and we will continue to follow federal and state guidelines to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all.

This is an ever-evolving situation, our guidepost will always be the well-being of our students, faculty, and staff. We have devised creative and innovative ways to bring people together, including student support services, virtual graduation celebrations, and online courses.

In addition, we have taken steps to ensure the health and safety of our community. This includes implementing social distancing measures, providing personal protective equipment, and providing resources for students and employees who need assistance.

We are also grateful for the Herculean effort set against the backdrop of unprecedented circumstances. LSU Discover would like to extend a big thank you to everyone who participated in Discover Day 2020. We had 106 student presenters who showcased their research, creative works, and service projects. We are saving a surprise for the virtual graduation celebration, but in the meantime, please visit our website to learn more about Discover Day 2020.

We want you and your grads to know how incredibly proud we are of them. We are saving a surprise for the virtual graduation celebration, but in the meantime, please visit our website to learn more about Discover Day 2020.

Sincerely,
