On the Cover

A basket container was donated to the Peabody Institute by Frederick Johnson. The basket is believed to have originated from the Mi'kmaq tribe, the largest of the North American tribes that traditionally occupied Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island in Canada as well as parts of the United States such as Maine and Massachusetts. The basket design consists of geometric details using birch bark, sweet grass, and porcupine quills. This basket is just one of many interesting artifact finds in the Peabody Collection Online Catalog.
