The obvious answer is by working together toward common goals, mixing tried and true methods with innovation, and always considering the current and future threats.

There are related and complementary skills and expertise at the different centers, and we have learned when to join forces, when to share, and when to get out of each other's way. This valuable partnership with DHS at all levels, we trust each other, and we are all working towards knowledge, experience, ability, and imagination, all focused on the problems faced by DHS, and more broadly by our nation and world.

A microcosm of this approach is the DHS Center of Excellence program. This investment. A two-year $400,000 grant from the CINA Department of Development for a Safe and Secure Homeland.

Criminal Investigations and Network Analysis (CINA) is focused on the role of financial systems in combating human trafficking, as well as sex trafficking. An important aspect of reducing trafficking is to detect and disrupt the financial activities of traffickers. CINA research and AFIT’s Center for Cybersecurity and Digital Forensics are working on tools to combat financial flows associated with trafficking.

During the internship, Walton will assist and collaborate with TSA-DHS Performance Management members through a variety of opportunities. She will:

- Attend and participate in meetings and discussion with TSA customer work.
