This email was sent to you. 4400 University Drive, MS 6D5

ISE NEWSLETTER

your preferences | to facilitate information sharing among researchers, practitioners, and relevant local, national, research pertaining to environmental science and sustainability. The biweekly newsletter aims at addressing pressing sustainability and resilience challenges.

The 8th World Sustainability Forum, taking place from June 4-6, 2020, will be a virtual event. This is an opportunity to promote the sustainability agenda and leadership role of our institutions. The event will be attended by thought leaders, researchers, activists, students, frontliners, and practitioners throughout the world. Attendees will be invited to share their experiences and collaborate to build a more sustainable society.

The Global Innovation Fund is a new program designed to invest in transformative ideas that aim to address pressing global challenges. Up to $3 million in funds will be awarded to innovative ideas that can help solve pressing global challenges.

The Office of Science, Department of Energy, is soliciting proposals for the FY 2020 Solicitation for the Office of Science. This solicitation seeks to support research projects that address pressing scientific questions and advance our understanding of natural systems, sustainability, and human dimensions.

The Connected Communities (CIVIC) program seeks to invest in social innovations that aim to improve the lives of those living in the developing world. Up to $5,000,000 in funds will be awarded to projects that address pressing global challenges.

The 2020 Presidential Awards for Faculty Excellence recognizes faculty members who have made outstanding contributions to the University of Mason.

Join us for the Mason Online Community Building Workshop on June 5th. This event will bring together faculty, staff, and students from across the University to build a more cohesive research-to-practice pipeline.

Additional information for the directory, including funding announcements, awards, and accomplishments, can be found on the Mason Online Community Building Workshop website.

Please complete this brief survey to help us improve our directory.