The Venture Design Challenge showed me how to put my ideas on paper and identify problems worth solving and how to mobilize the people, resources, and networks to solve them. Our students' great ideas start at the Great Lakes Community, guidance, and support. I am proud of our ENTP students. I know they will do great things in the world!