Limitations & Suggestions

Learning all there is to know about budget & finance can feel daunting. The Support Framework: Your Guide to Finding Help is designed to help the Budget & Finance community, including faculty or staff with financial responsibilities, identify their resources based on the following questions:

- Where can I find answers?
- How do I submit a request?
- Where can I find resources?
- How do I figure out the source of a GL-PPM discrepancy?
- Can’t figure out how to cut my direct retro with cap gap to work? See a wire example.
- What can I do on my own?
- Where do I go to submit an enhancement or idea?
- How can I make changes to the budget?
- What is the process for departmental purchases who want to further their understanding of buying on campus?
- How can I manage my time and projects better?
- Where can I get help with coding?
- Where can I find answers on my own?
- Where can I find answers to my questions about the University of California general campus accounting system?
- How do I process nonPO payments, and checking invoice status?
- How do I use the knowledge base to find answers?
- How do I update project personnel, project name, project classification, and reporting category, as well as create new general projects.
