BEHIND THE SCENES

Calaveras Post-Pandemic Economy At Stake: More than 58,000 small businesses have closed in the United States since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. While the government has provided relief to small businesses, many are still struggling to survive. In this segment, we will explore the challenges faced by small businesses and the importance of supporting local economies.

Wyoming Public Media Staff Loans and Tax-Induced Furloughs: The pandemic has had a significant impact on the state of Wyoming. In this segment, we will discuss the challenges faced by Wyoming businesses and the impact of furloughs on their operations.

Click the image below to learn more about this month's Virtual Panel Discussions.

NATIONAL STORIES

Overcrowding Makes It Hard For Native Americans To Socially Distance: With the spread of COVID-19, Native American communities have been especially affected. The Navajo Nation, with a population of over 300,000, has seen one of the highest rates of infection in the country. In this segment, we will explore the challenges faced by Native American communities and the importance of supporting their efforts to stop the spread of the virus.

300 Layoffs In Powder River Basin With Production Down ~20% From 2019: The coal industry is facing a tough year with lower returns for their products. For ranchers welcoming the extra hands with students back home, this could mean a lack of affordable housing on the Wind River Indian Reservation. In this segment, we will discuss the challenges faced by the coal industry and the impact on ranchers.

Wyoming Public Media is a service of the University of Wyoming. For information on becoming a sponsor, contact Dianne Burner at 307-766-3339 or dianne@uwyo.edu.