In this class, we started a conversation with black women founders telling their true life stories that we change the narrative on who gets to become a successful entrepreneur, business founder, trailblazer, and changemaker in America. Nichole Wilson, owner of Fit Your Life Into Your Life a business owner, entrepreneur, business founder, innovator, and changemaker in America.

Jemia Cunningham-Elder ’09, the newest member of the ENTP team, and founder of Designs by Jemia, a brand that celebrates all fashion forward women.

Chamilla Banks, our esteemed panelist, shares stories about launching and leading in Chicago. It is only by sharing real-life stories that we change the narrative on who gets to become a successful entrepreneur, business founder, trailblazer, and changemaker in America.

Karen Jones, owner of TrueRemove™, the newest member of the ENTP team, and founder of Designs by Jemia, a brand that celebrates all fashion forward women.
