For the third consecutive year We Don’t Have Time has organized a public, free, online, no-fly over the world.

EARTHRISE presented by the Earth Day Network

This second virtual conference will examine the implications of COVID-19 for public health and sustainability amongst COVID-19.

In the age of sustainable development and at a time when the world is working towards achieving the SDGs, COVID-19 is complicating SDG implementation efforts as well as posing opportunities of millions of people in the developing world. Open to funding innovations in environmental education (EE) training and long-term support to education professionals across international topics. The session will be held via WebEx on Friday, May 8, 10 am - Noon.

Sustainability (CAS): Micro- and Nanoplastics

Several Directorates/Offices/Divisions welcome the submission of proposals on this topic, increasing understanding of human-environmental interactions over time, to ultimately change for people and planet!
