What is social distancing?

At this time the university is still gathering information regarding permit/garage pass reimbursement

If you need legal counsel, please schedule an appointment with Free Student Legal Aid on MyWCU.

I would like to have my lease reviewed by Free Legal Services.

call your personal health care provider and/or 911.

for specific reasons only. Please visit the prepared to address urgent care needs, Student Health Services is modifying routine services

If I am remaining at my rental, may I seek health care at Student Health Services if I am sick?

not be returning to your rental property.

is always recommended that you inform your neighbors and/or property owner/manager if you will

Whether you are away for a quick trip and/or the remainder of the semester, it

If I do not return to my rental property, will my rental be safe?

items such as:

Going on a 3-day camping trip and think about what your family would need. Consider gathering practice social distancing of maintaining a 6 foot distance from others as much as possible.

What is social distancing?

Department, it is recommended to refrain from social gatherings, including hosting at home, and to resident to sign up.

are considered essential and will remain open. The only location open within the directed to temporarily close for at least two weeks.

What preventative measures are being implemented in Pennsylvania per the Governor during this closing.

Please visit

Director of Parent and Family Relations

Thank you for your partnership,

All updates regarding COVID-19 as it relates to West Chester University can be found actions reflect both upon themselves and the University community.

Conduct

As a reminder, although students are engaging in online coursework, the help prevent them from putting themselves, their peers, and their communities at risk for the gatherings.

are engaging in social distancing, practicing regular hand-washing, and avoiding large measures include closure of all Pennsylvania schools for two weeks and the closure of all non-measures in Chester County and the Borough of West Chester “to improve our government’s ability

Since Friday, March 13, Pennsylvania Governor Wolf and Mayor Dianne Herrin issued preventative been actively engaged in reviewing the University’s emergency operations and its response

Hello Ram Fam,

Please see below for the following:

https://www.wcupa.edu/healthNotices/faqs.aspx

Stay healthy,