CRTLE SPEAKER SERIES
Designing the Learner Experience:
7 Keys to Unlock the Human Element in Online Courses

Dr. Whitney Kilgore, Co-founder and Chief Academic Officer of iDesign, will present some easy wins for creating a connected learning experience for students in online environments. Following the presentation, Dr. Kilgore will facilitate a workshop where we encourage instructors to bring questions, ideas, and challenges on course design. Given the transition to Canvas in Fall 2019, this is a great opportunity to think about ways to develop engaging courses. Lunch will be provided.

Monday, April 22
Presentation - 12:00 P.M. - 1:00 P.M.
Workshop - 1:00 P.M. - 2:00 P.M.
246 Nedderman Hall

About the Center

The UTA Center for Research on Teaching and Learning Excellence (CRTLE) engages faculty, graduate teaching assistants, and community partners in research and innovative, high impact practices to enhance teaching and learning (AAC&U, 2008). The Center's mission embraces rigor, evidence-based scholarship on teaching to promote high levels of reasoning and meaningful learning among students. The CRTLE brings together scholars from all UTA disciplines to work on initiatives that integrate pedagogically sound practices, digital and innovative technologies, community engagement, and professional development.
