On behalf of Loyola Marymount University, welcome to Parent Pride! At Loyola Marymount University, we realize the important role parents and families play in their student’s college experience. We understand that you are important partners in your student’s educational journey. Whether you’re actively involved or want to become more involved, Parent Pride is here to help you!

Our online resource is designed to involve and inform those who support our students. It also contains helpful articles, tips, deadline reminders, general information, and other online tools. Parent Pride can help you do just that!

Parent and Family Programs is here to help create and maintain a positive experience for you and your student. We offer many online and in-person opportunities to stay connected to your LMU student so that you can continue to provide the support and encouragement needed. We hope you will work with us to promote your student’s academic and personal success.

Student Affairs is working to provide students with as many experiences from which to learn and grow as possible to stay involved and connected to their college communities.

Parents and families are an important part of our pride. Parent Pride topics will include everything from financing your student’s education to university holidays, academic dates, payment schedules, tuition refund deadlines, like university holidays, academic dates, payment schedules, tuition refund deadlines, general information, and other online tools. Parent Pride can help you do just that!

The tips for students and the families that support them will be shared throughout the year. These tips will be shared online here or via email. You can also stay connected by visiting our homepage or our social media channels.

The Parent and Family Leadership Council (PFLC) is a group of parents and families representing the diversity of our student body. Members of the PFLC serve in a volunteer capacity, without compensation, to broaden the voice of parents and families of current, recent, and former student at Loyola Marymount University. LMU parents and families have an unprecedented voice in our school!

Parent and Family Programs is here to help you, your student, and the whole L.A.M. community thrive together!

To receive our future emails, visit our website or email us at 310.338.1798 or studentsuccess@lmu.edu with any questions or concerns.

We want you to feel welcome, connected, and informed. Please do not hesitate to call me or email me at Lisha Maddox, Director of Student Success, at lmaddox@lmu.edu. My job is to answer all the questions you have about LMU and its programs!
