Welcome to Parent Pride!

Parent Pride is a website created by Loyola Marymount University (LMU), designed specifically for parents of LMU students. Our mission is to provide you with valuable resources and information to support you and your student throughout their time at LMU. We believe that the journey to success starts now, and we are here to help you make it as smooth as possible.

As a parent, you are an important part of your student's success. Here are some ways you can support your student:

1. Stay Connected: Our website is your hub for all things LMU. On this page, you can find updates, events, and resources tailored to parents and families.
2. Stay Informed: Our Parent and Family Guide contains important contact information and updates. Make sure to check it regularly to stay informed.
3. Stay Involved: Participate in Parent Pride to keep you connected to your LMU student. Your involvement helps us provide support and resources.
4. Stay Inspired: Read our blog and read about the success stories of LMU students, parents, and families. We hope these stories will inspire you.

Parent and Family Programs

Our Parent and Family Programs works closely with the Office of Student Engagement and Leadership to facilitate a successful student experience. We offer resources to help you and your student navigate the LMU experience, from beginning to end. We believe that everyone in the LMU community is an important partner in creating a successful student experience.

The Student Experience

The Student Experience is a comprehensive online resource for parents and families. It offers detailed information about LMU's various departments and programs, as well as resources to help you support your student's academic success.

Tips for Successful Students and the Families that Support Them

Parent Pride was created to involve and inform those who support our students. It also contains information from Lion Wellness, who is here to help support the health and safety of the LMU community.

Loyola Marymount University (LMU) is a distinctive Catholic, Jesuit, and Marymount educational experience in the pandemic era. We are #LMUTogether.

An executive functioning coach has great tips for students and advice for family members, too (starting with “Expect them to make mistakes” and “Remember, college is a marathon, not a sprint”). The Top Tips for Successful Students and the Families that Support Them can be found on our website.

Parent and Family Programs

Our Parent and Family Programs is here to help create and maintain a meaningful relationship with LMU so that you may support your student fully throughout their time at the university. Please do not hesitate to call me with any questions or concerns.

Latest Updates

LMU’s forward momentum by building Leadership Councils is an effort to develop relationships with the student community. Together, we can work to provide students with the best possible experience. Your support helps us achieve these goals.

In an effort to continue to support students and their families, Parent and Family Programs has created a new feature called Parent Pride. It is an online resource for parents and families designed to provide information about LMU's academic, social, and extracurricular offerings. The website also features articles and tips from experts in the field of education.

Get involved in Parent Pride and connect with other parents and families who are facing similar challenges. Join our online community and learn from others who have already走过 the same path.

Stay Connected

Remember to follow LMU on social media to stay informed about the latest news and events. Follow LMU on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn. You can also check out LMU's Lion Wellness Facebook page to get tips on how to support your student's mental health.

Resources

We have a wide range of resources available for parents and families. These include information about student engagement and co-curricular activities, ways to get involved on campus, and ways to stay connected. Visit our website to explore all the resources available.
