classes resume in the new year. It seems like lately there is never a dull moment, so with this newsletter none of us have seen before. I am incredibly proud of their hard work and accomplishments of our newest graduates would conclude. They completed their Clemson journeys in the face of challenges August 2020 graduates. The chance to personally recognize all our graduates during commencement is.

Perspective
Association's Applied Communication Division. His book, "Greg Cranmer undergraduate programs. We are excited to have Jordan on board. She is already making a difference in the top journals in the discipline. Three Experiments," was recently published in the Journal of Computer-Mediated Communication, one of interpersonal communication, and mediated communication. Skye received the 2020 Distinguished Scholar from the National Communication Association's Health Communication Section. Her book, "Interpersonal Goal Understanding, Uncertainty Reduction, and Perceptions in Cyberbullying: Theoretical Evidence from interpersonal communication, public relations and non-profit organizations. Jordan Morehouse the Department of Communication from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she completed her Ph.D. in communication. Skye's teaching and research interests are in health communication, public relations and organizations. Jordan Elling
Your gift will have a meaningful impact on our students, faculty, and the future of the Department of Communication. We encourage you to remain engaged with the Department of Communication by following us on Facebook and Twitter, or if you just want to chat, please don't hesitate to contact me. We are thrilled about what everyone is accomplishing and we hope you enjoy this newsletter!