SEPTEMBER TRAINING

Our September training cohort is right around the corner. Will you be part of it?

CASA volunteers are trained to advocate for a child's best interest while they're experiencing foster care. Our volunteers are a consistent adult who provide personalized advocacy to each child during a difficult and uncertain time.

Start your journey today by visiting our website to learn more and submit your inquiry form.

Community Spotlight

TREESORT

A heartfelt thank-you to Treesort for opening their doors—and their hearts—to CASA. Their gracious hospitality created a beautiful evening where we shared our mission, connected with potential volunteers, and enjoyed delicious snacks and fun giveaways. We're truly grateful for their warm welcome and for helping us spread the word about advocating for children in foster care.

Volunteer Spotlight

“After 32 years in education, I wanted to continue helping children and serving our community. Educators often feel helpless when faced with the many challenges foster children endure, as they are limited in the help they can offer. Serving as a CASA has opened my eyes even more to these numerous challenges.

I am so appreciative of the judges—they truly care about these children and seriously take CASA observations into consideration, helping them as much as the written laws allow. These children need the intense teamwork of DFCS caseworkers, attorneys, CASA volunteers, parents, and our judges to obtain the best outcome possible.

In a world where time is so limited, a CASA can provide individual care and crucial information that would otherwise be lost in the system.”

– Connie Daniels, CASA volunteer

By the Numbers: CASA's Commitment

Thank you to our CASA Community!

Because of your incredible generosity, we were able to provide school supplies to 212 children. Your kindness reminds each child that they are seen, supported, and never alone.

If you'd like to continue supporting our mission and help meet the needs of children in foster care, please consider making a gift today.
