HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

“Since you get more joy out of giving joy to others, you should put a good deal of thought into the happiness that you are able to give.” –Eleanor Roosevelt

NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Changemaker Bootcamp

On Saturday, November 21st 12:30pm-2:30pm, we will be having our Changemaker Bootcamp. This is a virtual opportunity to hear from social innovators like Charlyn Anderson founder of Starting With Today, and many more! We will also offer three break out groups one of which will gather some of our Clinton Global Initiative University Commitment Challenge recipients to share about their projects and any tips on the application process. You can come to one session or stay for the full program!

Spread Joy with Give-A-Gift!

For 25 years, the GW community has stepped forward to support our neighbors with gifts for the holidays. This year due to COVID-19 restrictions, we are unable to collect and distribute physical gifts, so we are hosting a virtual gift campaign to continue GW's support for the D.C. community. To learn more about Give-A-Gift visit our website.

Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics

December 1st - 12pm ET

Advocates and leaders know that leadership and social change require effective advocacy. Does that advocacy come with ethical considerations? Does how you make the case matter as much as the case you're making? Join Peter Loge for a discussion about what, if any, ethical responsibility you have as a communicator. Peter Loge is an associate professor in the School of Media and Public Affairs, has more than 25 years of experience in politics and strategic communication, and is the founder of the Project on Ethics in Political Communication.
