CHANGEMAKER BOOTCAMP

December 1st - 12pm ET
Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics

Mindful Minute

November 16th - 10:30am

Mindful Minute is a short, discussion-based stress-reduction workshop that focuses on simple meditation as powerful tools for managing stress.

You Voted, What Now?

Starting with Today

MLK DoS is a series of events that the GW community can take part in to continue to get involved in the civic engagement journey. You voted, what now? See below for more information.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

GW VOTES

Give-A-Gift

A virtual opportunity to hear from social innovators like Robert F. Smith, who will talk about his philanthropic work to help close the college access gap for students. Following the keynote address, participants and session attendees will be able to listen to and discuss with Panelists in small breakout groups.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

GW VOTES

Give-A-Gift

A virtual opportunity to hear from social innovators like Robert F. Smith, who will talk about his philanthropic work to help close the college access gap for students. Following the keynote address, participants and session attendees will be able to listen to and discuss with Panelists in small breakout groups.

500 Virtual Mentor Challenge

Anybody can apply to be a volunteer virtual mentor and receive the opportunity to mentor a student in Maryland and Washington, D.C.

Mindful Minute

GW VOTES

MLK DoS is a series of events that the GW community can take part in to continue to get involved in the civic engagement journey. You voted, what now? See below for more information.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

GW VOTES

Give-A-Gift

A virtual opportunity to hear from social innovators like Robert F. Smith, who will talk about his philanthropic work to help close the college access gap for students. Following the keynote address, participants and session attendees will be able to listen to and discuss with Panelists in small breakout groups.

500 Virtual Mentor Challenge

Anybody can apply to be a volunteer virtual mentor and receive the opportunity to mentor a student in Maryland and Washington, D.C.