NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Changemaker Bootcamp
On Saturday, November 13th, 10am-12pm, we will host the Next Generation Changemakers Bootcamp. This is an opportunity for students to learn about social entrepreneurship, work on their pitches, and network with leaders in the field.

Mindful Minute
Mindful Minute is a short, discussion-based stress-reduction workshop that focuses on simple mindfulness and meditation techniques. Students will learn about the basics of mindfulness and meditation as powerful tools for managing stress.

Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics
December 1st - 12pm ET
Advocates and leaders know that leadership and social change require effective advocacy. Does that advocacy come with ethical considerations? Does how you make the case matter as much as the case you're making? Join Peter Loge for a discussion about what, if any, ethical responsibility you may have.

Recruiting Leaders!
We are currently looking for student leaders for the 2020-2021 academic year. We need leaders who are passionate about making a difference and who want to contribute to the success of our programs.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

You Voted, What Now?
For 25 years, the GW community has stepped forward to support our annual Give-A-Gift campaign. This year due to COVID-19 restrictions, we are unable to collect and distribute physical gifts, so we are launching Give-A-Gift virtually to continue GW's support for our neighbors with gifts for the holidays. 500 Virtual Mentor Challenge
Maryland MENTOR has initiated the “500 Virtual Mentor Recruitment Challenge” campaign with the support of Thread, Big Brother Big Sister of Central Maryland, Community Youth Advance, Best Kids, and Maryland Youth Volunteer Center. The campaign encourages mentors to connect with student volunteers through the Thread website.
