NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Changemaker Bootcamp
On December 1st - 12pm ET, the founder of the Project on Ethics in Political Communication, Peter Loge, will join us for a discussion about ethical considerations in advocacy. Referenced in the case you're making? Join Peter Loge for a discussion about what, if any, ethical responsibility you have as a communicator. Peter Loge is an associate professor in the School of Media and Public Affairs, has more than 25 years of experience in politics and strategic communication, and is the founder of the Project on Ethics in Political Communication.

Mindful Minute
Mindful Minute is a short, discussion-based stress-reduction workshop that focuses on simple mindfulness and meditation techniques. Students will learn about the basics of mindfulness and meditation as powerful tools for managing stress.

Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics
Advocates and leaders know that leadership and social change require effective advocacy. Does how you make the case come with ethical considerations? Does how you make the case matter as much as what you say? Join us for a discussion about your role as a communicator and how you might learn to get more joy out of giving joy to others.
