NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Changemaker Bootcamp
On Saturday, November 21st, 10am-12pm EST, we will host our annual Changemaker Bootcamp. This is a day-long event where you will learn personal and leadership skills from Changemakers around the world. We are excited to announce that this year’s bootcamp will be hosted by Prevent Child Abuse America, a leader in child advocacy and prevention. This is a fantastic opportunity to learn from Changemakers and to connect with others who share your passion. Sign up now.

Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics
On December 1st, 12pm ET, we will host our Civic Leadership Dialogue: Advocacy Ethics. This event is designed to bring together advocates and leaders to discuss ethical considerations in advocacy and leadership. Peter Loge, a professor in the School of Media and Public Affairs, will lead the discussion and share his expertise on the topic. We hope you will join us.

Mindful Minute
On November 19th, 6:30pm ET, we will host our Mindful Minute workshop. This session is designed to help you reduce stress and improve your mental well-being through mindfulness and meditation techniques. You will learn about the basics of mindfulness and meditation and how to apply these practices to your daily life. Sign up now.

You Voted, What Now?
On Saturday, November 21st, 12:30pm-2:30pm, we will host our You Voted, What Now? event. This is a series of sessions centered on actions the GW community can take post-election. Voting is only one form of civic engagement and there are many ways to get involved in the six pathways of civic engagement. We will provide guidance and resources on how to get involved in our community. Sign up now.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES
