TOWN GUIDES

As I was approaching twelve years growing The E List (and various other small businesses that I either started or ran), I thought about some of the lessons I've learned throughout my career. Like most folks, I love a listicle, something I can easily get my mind around and maybe put one or two ideas to use. Whether you own your own business or are thinking of starting one, I've compiled a few actionable items that you may find helpful. I've had an idea for a book for a long time, but can't seem to get around to it, so maybe this is the first chapter. See the 12 things I've learned below.

Carlson's Finally Lands in Essex

We've been ringing Carlson's Landing for an opening date for a few weeks now, and someone FINALLY answered the phone. If the idea was creating buzz pre-opening, it worked. We headed to the very tip of Main Street in Essex last week to see for ourselves...

Copal Clean Beauty: A

Rebranding for Jennie Fresa, Madison

Copal is a fitting name for local brow queen, Jennie Fresa's, rebranding. It's a tree resin that, when used as incense, clears negative energy and introduces positive change. Which is pretty much what I feel every time I stroll into Jennie's airy space...

Goodspeed Musicals

Billy Elliot The Musical Now
Playing through Nov 24 |
The Goodspeed, East Haddam

When you see Goodspeed's Billy Elliot The Musical, it's hard not to walk out of the theatre with a smile on your face. Young Billy Elliot is pulled between his family's coal-mining roots and his newly-discovered passion to dance. Is his future boxing gloves or ballet shoes? In the hardscrabble world of a changing England, reaching high becomes a leap of faith. From rousing anthems to stirring ballads to electrifying dance numbers, this production has it all. The Hartford Courant raves, "The passion, the righteousness, the joyousness is infectious." You don't want to miss Billy Elliot!
