HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

GW VOTES

NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

VISTA Program

GW Office of Innovation & Entrepreneurship, this event will discuss voting, the upcoming elections, and how innovation and social entrepreneurship can promote civic engagement.

October 2 | 1pm-2:30pm ET

Together, youth and adults will share why voting matters now and in future elections, the role youth can play with links to resources, and content on four key topics: Racial Justice, Environment, Disaster Relief and Sustainability, Community and Education, and Border Relations and Immigration.

For more information, text VISTA to 465-432. Check out our website at gwvotes.gwu.edu.

Open Jobs at Nashman Center

The Nashman Center seeks service-minded, recent college grads (PiAf) offers highly selective yearlong fellowships to recent college graduates in public service. The Nashman Center and your poster. A 12 week, Faith Fugar will recount her experience as a PiAf fellow in Nairobi, Kenya and describe what PiAf is seeking cultural competencies and experiences in international development. Fellows make significant contributions to programs that help improve the lives of people in Africa. For more information or to apply visit http://princetoninafrica.gwu.edu.

Sign up for information from Undergraduate Fellowships and Research Opportunities.

Info Session: GWAllAccess: Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

GW All Access: Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself.

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself.

Princeton in Africa

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself.

Something to repair tears in your community. Something to make life a little better for people less fortunate than you. That’s what I think a meaningful life is.

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself.

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself.

If you want to be a true professional, you will do something outside yourself.