VIP MY CLIENTS!

Dear Colleague,

Greetings from Buenos Aires on a lovely (still) summer day!

Although I haven't been vaccinated yet, I'm happy to see how well my neighbors in Chile are doing with their program. Did you know they're leading South America in Covid vaccinations and ranked No. 8 worldwide? As I write this letter, Chile has already vaccinated 20% of its population!

Those numbers — together with remote and uncrowded landscapes like Torres del Paine National Park — make Chile a prime choice if you're looking for an international destination for your clients. Las Torres Reserve has already set reopening dates for the upcoming season and will start welcoming travelers again very soon. All of the campsites are scheduled to reopen on September 15th, except for Seron which is opening on October 1st. The mountain hostels, refugios and Hotel Las Torres are reopen on October 20th. Don't get left out: Secure your reservation soon for campsites, mountain hostels, cabins and the lodge at Las Torres.

Meanwhile, the second edition of our Re•think Travel Virtual Trade Show is confirmed for June -10, 2021. Add those dates to your calendar so you won't miss the inspiring sessions and amazing worldwide exhibitors that will feature again. You will soon receive a formal invite and link to register for the event.

We hope you enjoy the articles, news and information that we have selected for you in the March edition. Exciting destinations across Central and South America await.

Let's travel the world!

Guyana

- In spite of the pandemic we are still hopeful and optimistic that travel will return in droves in Q3 and Q4. We also know, based on research, that we are well positioned for when travel starts again, based on the type of travel experiences visitors will be seeking: nature and wide open outdoor (for the leisure travelers) and reconnecting with friends and family (for the Guyanese Diaspora). With this in mind, we have come up with a series of Welcome Back to Guyana videos. The four videos that you can access here, are based on the four main tourism brand pillars for Guyana: Nature and Conservation, Culture, Adventure, and Birding.
- Missed our last webinar "Explore the Rivers of Guyana"? Don't worry! You can access the full webinar recording here.
- Missed our last webinar "Getting to Guyana - With JetBlue"? Don't worry! You can access the full webinar recording here.
- Guyana Tourism Authority rolls out "Safe for Travel" plan. More info here.
- On September 2020, we officially launched the North American OTT Course for Guyana. The course has been divided into four modules: Guyana Essentials, Nature, Birding & Wildlife, Culture & Heritage and Community-tourism and Lodges. The course also includes practical advice and information to help you sell Guyana including itineraries and a list of trade-friendly and local Guyanese operators you can book through. We encourage you to dive into the course and learn more about this singular destination. Did we mention there are prizes for the first 40 agents to complete it?

It's not all about incredible Chilean nature. Las Torres Reserve offers several half- and full-day tours that feature Patagonia's human history and culture including a "Patagón" time trip excursion that examines remnants of the region's ancient indigenous cultures and a "Baqueano Cultural Experience" that dives into local cowboy ways.

Guyana's Great River Adventures

The best way to truly experience a place is often by taking the road less travelled. So, while most travelers experience Guyana by land or air, think about exploring the country's stunning natural beauty by boating on some of the hundreds of rivers and streams.

Five Half-Day Tours in San Jose

Terranova's half-day tours in and around San Jose are a great possibility if you have a few hours between flights, if your departure flight is late, or you're on business and have little free time to experience the beauty of Costa Rica.

Chile Pulls Ahead in the Vaccination Race

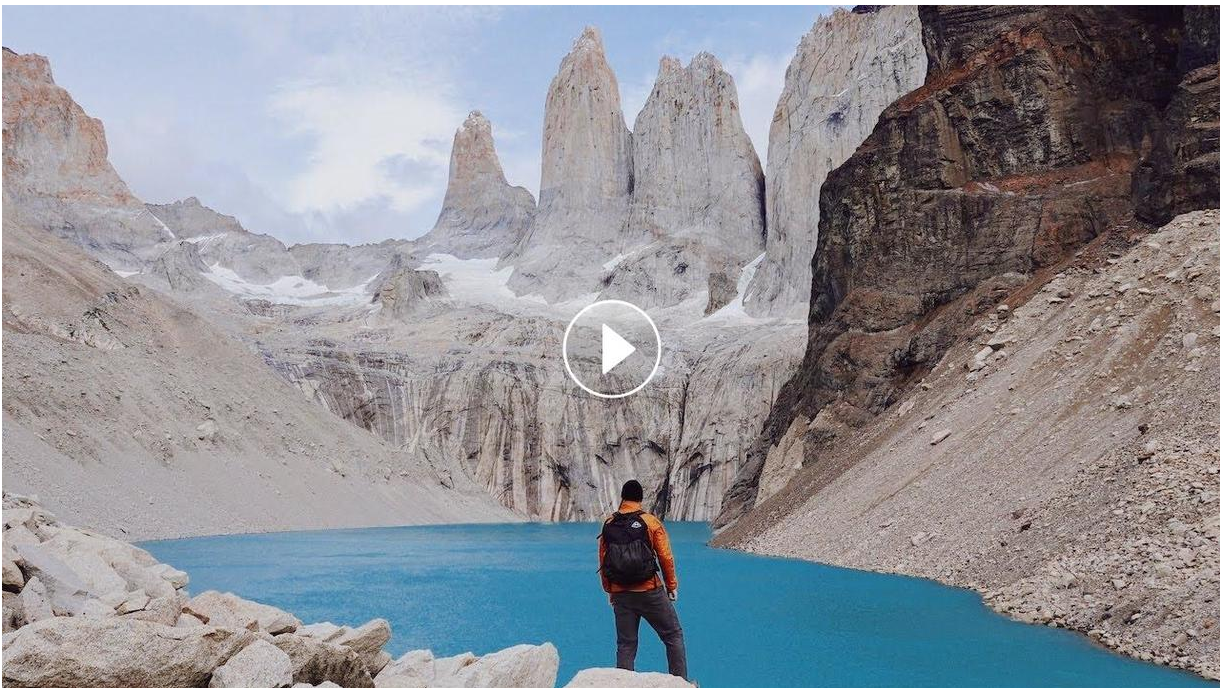

Chile has emerged as the clear front runner in Latin America's race to get as many people as possible vaccinated against Covid-19. According to the latest figures from the Our World in Data project at Oxford University in England, Chile is currently ranked No. 8 globally for the percentage of citizens who have already received the first shot.

Hiking 80 Miles Alone at Torres Del Paine

Kraig Adams offers an awesome half-hour video on his six-day solo hike along the “O” Circuit and “W” Trail in Patagonia’s Torres del Paine National Park. Anyone can replicate his trip through Las Torres Reserve and its network of campgrounds and refugios along these epic trekking routes in southern Chile.

Costa Rica's Buzzy Nicoya Peninsula

Conde Nast Traveler (USA) reports on how a set of forward-thinking creative types are building on the Costa Rican

Quotable quote: "Just 140 miles from the capital, San José, and a motorboat hop from San Lucas is the Nicoya Peninsula, where, over the past two decades, locals and an international nomadic crowd have come together to create a community of nature-loving forward-thinkers. Their home, a verdant limb in the country's northwest, has a string of beautiful beaches and a handful of townships where pura vida (the national mantra for living a simple life) is second nature."
