Dear Students,

As the fall semester approaches, we want to extend warm greetings to you. We hope this message finds you healthy and well. The Dean of Students is excited to welcome you to campus this year!

Critical decisions are currently being made to maintain your safe and well-being. We realize that there are many questions you might have related to the return to campus life. While some answers are easier to come by than others, we want you to know that we are here to support you in any way we can. Read on for answers to some of your more critical questions, too.

Student Health Services

We are providing COVID-19 testing for students with a positive screen. Please call 608-785-8073, ext. 8341 for assistance. The Counseling & Testing Center will offer a limited number of in-person counseling services. Additionally, our services will be offered virtually this fall, and will include: private counseling, couples counseling, group therapy, crisis intervention, and conflict resolution. Our services are free of charge to students.

Students will receive a hold on their WINGS account prior to classes beginning. Sexual Assault Prevention (SAP) for Undergraduates is due by August 17. Registration if the required courses have not been completed. Students will receive a hold on their WINGS account prior to classes beginning. Sexual Assault Prevention is due by August 17. Required Online Training Course.

Due to COVID, this fall the Recreational Eagle Center (REC) will look different with the use of buildings, and masks are highly recommended in outdoor spaces. Please remember that as we work to prevent the spread of COVID-19, we are working to provide services, growth opportunities and welcoming facilities. We pride ourselves on "something for everyone." As we work to serve you for this year! At UWL we recognize that violence in any form can interfere with school year! At UWL we recognize that violence in any form can interfere with the work and learning taking place in our community. Often, someone who experiences a sexual assault, stalking, or violence or abuse in a relationship, may find that they have difficulty focusing on work or on their studies. The Counseling & Testing Center is here to serve you for a successful semester. We're eager to welcome students back, but we're not sharing food or drinks. It just makes sense, right?

We are also expecting students to properly physical distance, both inside and outside campus buildings, and masks are highly recommended in outdoor spaces.
