“Girls in AI” project shares testimonies of CMU Portugal female Ph.D. students

The “Girls in AI project” is an initiative by Instituto Superior Técnico led by Professor Isabel Trancoso (Técnico/INESC ID and CMU Portugal faculty member & researcher). The project aims to share short testimonial videos of former and current Técnico students who followed a career in Artificial Intelligence (AI), showing the endless career opportunities in this area and inspiring more girls to follow them.

A group of three CMU Portugal Dual Degree Ph.D. students at Técnico, Maria Casimiro, Margarida Ferreira and Carolina Carreira, shared ther testimony to inspire other female candidates to pursue the Artificial Intelligence area, and who knows, pursue a CMU Portugal Ph.D. Program!
