Welcome to your first edition of Eagle Mail!

Check out these videos for some advice from your Eagle Guides:

Checkouts will begin on August 17th. Please bring your textbooks so that we can properly social distance during the checkout time period. Watch for an email from Textbook Rental Services during the first week of August. It will provide information about the textbooks you will need to purchase for the fall semester. Participating in the textbook rental program means you’ve already paid for (at least the majority of) your textbooks, which helps with budgeting. You are not required to participate in the textbook rental program-which means you’ve already paid for (at least the majority of) your textbooks, which helps with budgeting. You are not required to participate in the textbook rental program.

To learn more about Student Support Services:

Student Support Services is a Department of Education -TRIO funded program at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (UWL). The program provides academic support and personal development programs to help students succeed in college. Program services are free of charge and open to any student at UWL. To register for the program, go to the Student Support Services website.
