focus groups, proposing an analysis plan, and developing the corresponding budget to complete this

Office of Community Engagement, provided technical assistance in writing this aim, designing the intervention using a series of focus groups. Lisa Goldman Rosas, PhD MPH, Faculty Director of the providers to understand their interpretations of the findings and to identify opportunities for birth among women with lupus. Then, she proposed to bring these findings to women and their perspective of pregnant women with lupus and their providers. Her study design included cutting-national Melanoma Registry.

Melanoma Community Registry of California (MCRC). The goal of the registry is to develop a cohort designed to prevent and detect melanoma. The team is currently building a data repository called the opportunity to learn and look forward to continuing working with the Peer Navigators.

September 2019. The Peer Navigators were excited to showcase their wonderful work and speak to Health Disparities in Racial/Ethnic Minorities and the Medically Underserved that took place in presented at the American Association of Cancer Research Conference on The Science of Cancer events surrounding breast cancer awareness such as mammogram screenings and community project.

and research, Geeta is captain of Basmati Raas, Stanford’s nationally competitive Indian dance

Mapping of Mental Health Resources in San Mateo County: The Quest For A More Patient &
3) Joshua Taylor (Community Partner: iMPACt Mid-peninsula Pediatric Advocacy Coalition)

Progress in a Precision Medicine Intervention
2) Navika Shukla (Community Partner: Latino Cancer Institute) Developing Tools to Measure their community partners who collaborate on community-responsive research or service projects in San Mateo and Santa The Office of Community Engagement (OCE) Valley Fellowship Program, generously supported by research that transforms human health and addresses health disparities. The course will provide methodologies like Social Network Analysis.

provided the research plan. The plan used a Community-Based Participatory Research approach submit a proposal to systematically examine their base-building efforts. Base-building refers to the forward to working with students, faculty, and community partners to build new research and education programs, and conducted community-engaged research projects. Her own research

Consumer Sciences Advisor with UC Cooperative Extension where she oversaw the local research and its practical application to public health policy and practice. As the Associate Director of research that seeks solutions to inequities in population health. As a behavioral health researcher, Kathryn Azevedo Mendoza PhD, MA, (Left)  focuses on ethnographic and applied mixed-methods

Wei-ting Chen, PhD, MA, (Right) came to Stanford University after serving as the Nutrition, Family &