LMU Peace and Reconciliation

DISCOVER CROATIA

LMU's Peacebuilding and Reconciliation Program

Join us for a 4-week Odyssey tour to Croatia to explore the world with LMU!

Spend this summer or fall as a DC intern, taking a class and gaining practical experience in the heart of the nation’s capital.

Receive 4 credits and a competitive stipend that covers $1000 - $5000 of your expenses. Gain hands-on work experience with a DC based international company.

Spend this summer or fall in Budapest, Germany, and live in this vibrant city. Enjoy a modern, furnished apartment with easy metro access. Visit the free museums and enjoy the art and culture of this historically rich region.

LMU Peace and Reconciliation provides students with an opportunity to learn first-hand about justice and reconciliation. Discussions about conflict, and the task of achieving peace will be addressed through academic and experiential learning opportunities. Monuments and sites of conflict will also be visited. Students can choose to participate in fulfilling the Peace and Reconciliation Capstone Requirement.

There are few opportunities throughout the world where students can explore justice and reconciliation with the same level of depth and breadth. This program is an ideal opportunity for students who are interested in understanding the dynamics of conflict and how to achieve peace. Available for first year students, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Apply by March 1 for your upcoming summer or fall study abroad opportunities.

Deadline: March 21. In 2022, the internship program will be offered at LMU in Dublin, Ireland.

Free admission, no travel costs.
