Join a Student Organization: Finding your Community and Staying Connected During Unprecedented Times

In a time when we are all isolated, many GVSU student organizations are working hard to provide us with a safe way to connect. Fellow GVSU students Maddie Schultz, Emily McKenzie, and Hannah Kelly explain why they love devoting their time to their organizations and why it's especially rewarding right now to stay involved.

Small Businesses to Support in Our Community

There are many small businesses in the Allendale and Grand Rapids area that could use your support right now. COVID-19 has made things difficult for small businesses everywhere, so if you're able, order takeout from a family-owned restaurant or buy some books from a locally owned shop! Find out more about some of the wonderful small businesses in our community.
