Yom Kippur (Or Day of Atonement)

Protestant Chaplain offered free of charge to all participants thanks to the Young Adult Ministries budget of the Diocese of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts is hosting an online retreat on Saturday, October 3 for young adults (ages 18-30).

The retreat will focus on climate resilience. In light of the recent critical conversations around climate change, Tufts University Chaplaincy is hosting this event to provide a space for young adults to come together and explore their relationship with the environment. The event will feature panel discussions, small group discussions, and a guided meditation. Please download the flyer for more information.

Here Together: Drop in Spaces for Students in COVID Isolation or Quarantine

Tufts University Chaplaincy is hosting drop-in spaces for students in COVID isolation or quarantine. These spaces will provide a safe and supportive environment for students to connect with each other and receive support during this difficult time.

If you have any questions or ideas for programs or events, please contact program manager Jennifer Howe Peace, University Chaplain ad interim. We are always looking for ways to support the Tufts community.

The winner of the Apple Watch raffle is Jimmy Wang, who will be receiving his prize soon.

The survey helps the Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies address the spiritual crisis. The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies are seeking to address this spiritual crisis by offering a parallel program for faculty and staff; students will be paired with mentors to support their spiritual growth.

Several of our chaplains have contributed to the program of active listening while experimenting with shared spiritual walks, meditation exercises, listening to music, and deep reading. The program offers a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature, prayer, altar for personal use, and the purpose and practice of Buddhist prayer.
