The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to Massachusetts. Follow the links to find

Register by September 25

The theme of the retreat is Learning to Walk with God in the World and it will focus on helping participants

To know that CMHS is offering a range of programs for students this semester, including Oasis, for Black-

Contact can connect with other students to share experiences, discuss challenges, and learn strategies for self-care. Please

Note: No session on Wednesday, September 23

The group will meet over the course of five weeks in small groups facilitated by Catholic Chaplain Lynn

Join Hillel for an evening of storytelling and a Q&A with Yochai Maital, the founder of

There is nothing so wise as a circle.

For more information please connect with Catholic Chaplain

Rooting Out Racism: An Online Retreat for White Christian Folks

For Zoom links to any offering listed above, please visit our

The invitations to reach out to us are

For her last session of virtual crafting. Jenny can help you with your knitting,

JumboVote is a nonpartisan, student-led organization at Tufts University dedicated to promoting civic engagement

$25 will be thanked with a commemorative t-shirt designed by Tufts undergrad Denzel Oduro and printed by

The Charles Warren Center for Studies in American History at Harvard

Black Suffering and Spiritual Protest in the Age of U.S. Empire

The Howard Center for Earth and Science Ethics

Tufts Votes

The Tracy B. S. and Lewis E. L. Semple Professorship in the Charles Warren Center for Studies in American History at Harvard

Rabbi Naftali's New Podcast: Being and Becoming

Join University Chaplain

Elyse Nelson Winger, who joins the team on Thursday, October 1.

E-NEWS  9.23.20