The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts University community. It is a resource for students, faculty, and staff of all faiths and backgrounds, offering a variety of programs and services.

Eighth Day (Shmini 'Atzeret) is considered both the end of Sukkot and a distinct festival. It marks the conclusion of the Ten Days of Awe, and Yom Kippur is the holiest and most solemn of all days in the Jewish year. It is a time for reflection, repentance, and forgiveness.

The group's mission is dedicated to learning, service, and action that better prepares our community to meet climate challenges. Communities Responding to Extreme Weather (CREW) Climate Prep Week, a network of local leaders building grassroots climate resilience through inclusive and hands-on education, service, and action, is a key program. Keys to Climate Preparedness: Hands-On Action workshops and events are being planned. CREW was a collaborator for this year's CAFE program, and is seeking new members of the Tufts community. Please know that CMHS is offering a range of programs for students this semester, including Oasis, for Black students.

So much has happened and so much awaits our attention. It is easy to feel impatient and want to rush past the moment we're in. Author Isabel Wilkerson notes that, "This moment we're in is not just a social crisis and not just a political crisis. It's a crisis for humanity and our shared natural world."

The concert aims to amplify Black and Brown students and local artists, and will include five student and seven local performers. The survey helps the Catholic community learn more about their members' needs and interests. The winner of the Apple Watch raffle is Jimmy Wang, who will be receiving his prize soon.
