The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. It offers a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature meditation, personal altars, and Buddhist weekly gatherings.

Catholic Spirituality Hour

Participants are paired in dyads and commit to spending an hour together. Throughout the course of the semester, they will "visit" the parishes of the local New England area. Note: No session on Wednesday, September 23.

Buddhist Weekly Gathering

The Venerable Priya Sraman, Buddhist Chaplain, and the Venerable Thich Tam Tien, (M.Div., Harvard Divinity School) and The Venerable Upali Sraman, (Ph.D., Emory University) will talk about ways to care for our emotional and spiritual health, drawing on teachings about the mind.

Weekly Gathering

Weekly Gathering features a guided shorter meditation, and on Fridays for a full hour of meditation. In this acute moment, building and nourishing relationships is critical. The opportunity to connect is abundant. Please connect with Buddhist Chaplain Cooper and Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell for discussion and mutual support. If you would like to participate or learn more, contact Walker Bristol, Humanist Chaplain.

CREW Climate Prep Week

CREW Climate Prep Week is dedicated to learning, service, and actions that better prepare our students—international students - and more. You can always find out more on their website or contact Humanist Chaplain Walker Bristol for more information. All are welcome.

JumboVote

JumboVote is a nonpartisan, student-led organization at Tufts University dedicated to promoting civic engagement and voter turnout. JumboVote wants to ensure all our Tufts community members are ready to participate in the 2020 elections.

Tisch College Election 2020 Initiatives

The winner of the Apple Watch raffle is Jimmy Wang, who will be receiving his prize soon. The survey helps the Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies to identify and better understand the spiritual needs and concerns of our students. The survey asks questions about things that matter like your values, your sense of community, and your ideas for the class. The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies encourage you to take the survey. Be-Friend: Interfaith Friendship Program

The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies have contributed to racial inequity, and to commit more deeply to uprooting racism from their hearts and from the larger structures of our society. The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies are seeking to address this spiritual crisis by offering a weekly reflection. It invites white Christians to search their souls, understand how Christianity has contributed to racial inequity, and to commit more deeply to uprooting racism from their hearts and from the larger structures of our society.

Lynn Cooper

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Lynn Cooper, Catholic Chaplain, or Protestant chaplain Dan Bell. The opportunities to connect are abundant. The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies cannot be together in person right now, Christ is still present among us and cannot be separated by physical distance. Throughout the course of the semester, they will "visit" the parishes of the local New England area.
