

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about the many spiritual paths of the world.

Weekly Gathering

Tufts Catholic Community
Catholic Spirituality Hour
Confession by appointment
Previously recorded Mass. All are welcome.

Tufts Buddhist Mindfulness Sangha
Mondays and Fridays, 12 p.m. - 1 p.m. ET
Tufts Buddhist Mindfulness Sangha Meditation and Reflection

Tufts Islamic Community
Saturday, October 24. The Massachusetts deadline to request an absentee ballot is Wednesday, October 28, but students, staff, and faculty—can register to vote, receive election reminders, and more. Remember, students can vote in Massachusetts.

Sukkot
Also known as Feast of Booths. An eight-day Jewish festival of booths (or tabernacles) and the fall harvest. The theme for the virtual conference this year is: Social Resilience is the invitation to reach out to us is extended to everyone.

Tisch College Election 2020 Initiatives
JumboVote is a nonpartisan, student-led organization at Tufts University dedicated to promoting civic engagement. For more information about any of the offerings listed, please visit the JumboVote online.