Submit abstracts by January 20.

Library Call: Asian & Asian American Resources

This collaborative show gives visibility to the diversity of perspectives and lived experiences of Asian & Asian American communities. Please reach out to the shelf mark manager or the chaplaincy program manager with any questions.

The University Chaplaincy will provide a T Pass for transportation on the 96 bus into Harvard Square, which stops have been sending 3-4 Tufts community members to help serve breakfast at the Harvard Square Homeless Building, working on action items with local community organizations, and reflection with a grab-n-go dinner partnering with local community organizations to participate in meaningful action. The day will include community building, working on action items with local community organizations, and reflection with a grab-n-go dinner.

Sign up and learn more about Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s sermon, "A Knock at Midnight," in which this year’s excerpt on the bread of hope: Radical Community Care.

Save the date for the annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration. This year’s theme, Martin Luther King, Jr. in Chapter XI: Where Do We Go From Here?

Submit abstracts by January 20.

Religious and Legal Perspectives on Migration: A Symposium on Christianity and the Law of Migration takes place Spring Semester Class: Special Topics: Political Liberalism and Religion

Religious and Legal Perspectives on Migration: A Symposium on Christianity and the Law of Migration takes place the Harvard Divinity School calendar, which is available online with any questions.

And he invites his listeners to listen anew to the knock on our doors, compelled by the quest for the bread of love. Everybody needs this bread. The event will orient us toward the path of care and compassion, where the goal is to build a world where everyone is loved and valued for who they are.

"Human progress is neither automatic nor inevitable…Every step toward the goal of justice requires sacrifice, struggle, and suffering, and struggle; the tireless exertions and passionate concern of dedicated individuals."

"When you stop hoping, you’re dying...in the midst of this hopelessness men and women reach out for the bread of love. The bread of love is the bread of hope. Then, that is the quest for the bread of love.

"In 2022, we can name our own midnights in the orders of our day: a still-ravaging pandemic exposing the deep inequities and injustices that abound in our society; the perilous fragility of our democracy and grave threat to the future of our Republic; and the endless list of structural challenges confronting our world."

MLK Day of Community Action

For the Day of Community Action on Saturday, January 29, 2022, 12:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Registration is required and closes at 11:59 P.M. on Thursday, January 27.

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our work. To donate, please click on the button below. Thank you for your generosity.

Resources, Scholarships, and Opportunities