Almanac: A reflection from our Protestant chaplain, who is available to support you.

Tufts community is welcome, and warmly invited. You are offered in addition to current Religion majors and minors about their experiences. You are also invited to share your own family stories.

Servant leadership is a primary model of ministry in the church, where leadership is not about being a master or a leader who directs, but a servant. The leadership is willing and joyful to serve the needs of the community.

If, in the adaptation of mindfulness to Western culture, essential elements are sometimes omitted, Heartfulness may be the remedy. This event is cosponsored by the Tufts Mindfulness and Resilience Collaborative. This event will be held through Zoom.

As you may know, Heartfulness is a spiritual approach that is based on a system of easy and powerful techniques that help enhance well-being, transformation, and personal growth. Practiced in groups, it creates a learning and healing community where people cross borders, finding genuine connection with self, others, and spirit.

Heartfulness encompasses relationality, compassion and responsibility. Heartfulness enhances well-being and transformation.

In Living Memory: A Concert of Stories & Songs

In Living Memory: A Concert of Stories & Songs sits at the intersection of two equally pressing issues facing modern American artists: it provides an opportunity to remember those who have passed on, and an opportunity to reflect on the role of the artist in society. The concert will be held on Wednesday, November 10 from 6:30 p.m. - 8 p.m. in the Sophia Gordon Multipurpose Room. Folks of all faiths and no faith are welcome.

True Colors Community and Crafts: An opportunity to qraft! Attendees can come at their own pace and take a break from midterms to defend your true colors in a craft setting. So come and craft with your queer peers and embrace your true colors at the event on Friday, November 12, 3 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Puja: Saturday, November 13, 5:30 p.m.

Giveaway: Thursday, November 4, 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Dear Tufts Community,

As the eyes of the world turn to the 2021 General Assembly at the United Nations, Tufts students, faculty, and staff are tracking the proceedings and sharing insights with the Tufts community.

We are now in the age of the refugee, and the theme of this year's seminar is refugees and their experience of displacement. The seminar will be held on Wednesday, November 3, 2021, at 12:00 p.m. ET, held virtually.

The goal of the film is to bring attention to the collective memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piecing together peoples' stories: their immigrant and transnational experiences, their memories of this community, piec
