The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. Our mission is to foster understanding and respect among different cultures and communities.

Upcoming Events

- February 9, 6:00 p.m. at Aidekman Arts Center: The exhibition also features artwork from current students in the Tufts Asian and Asian American Studies Program.
- February 10, 9:00 a.m. - 6:30 p.m. at The Fletcher School: This conference examines the concept of cultural heritage and its connection to religion, while emphasizing the diverse understandings of cultural heritage around the world, particularly those of minority religious or indigenous groups.
- February 16, 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., Goddard Chapel: We hope you leave with new connections. We can't wait to see you for a night of musical performances, art, and poetry.
- February 23, 5:00 p.m., Goddard Chapel: Our second Spanish Mass of the year will be a beautiful way to celebrate our diversity.

Programs

- Milfoil 40th Anniversary: A lunch panel discussion featuring Dr. William J. Barber II, author and Supreme Court reporter Dahlia Lithwick, and many more.
- Tisch College: Changemakers will meet on campus to host conversations centered on the theme of citizen activism and the question: what is ours to do at this moment? Hear from civil rights leader Rev. Dr. William J. Barber II.

Resources

- Undergraduate Environmental Photo Contest: Win up to $150! The Environmental Studies Program is proud to host this event. The exhibition will be displayed on the Medford Campus for the next academic year.
