August 2024

Dear Colleague,

I've just returned from a week in Greenland with Iceland ProCruises. It was bittersweet, as this is their last branded cruise. We had a great 10 years with them and will miss them! The good news is that the brand will continue, I'll have more news next month!

And, we are still selling Iceland, with Iceland ProTravel, their sister company, which is in its 30th year in business. I explored our GM's favorite hot spring last week, the Hvammsvík Hot Springs were fabulous. Perched on the edge of a fjord, salt water from the bay periodically splashes into the springs.

As you may know, we have expanded our portfolio to include more Europe and if you want help with Malta, MiMalta is proving to be a terrific boutique and very creative company. We are working on some really cool adventure itineraries such as running, hiking, biking, paddling and wellness trips in addition to more traditional historical visits. Let us know if Claudia and the team can assist you. We are happy to schedule appointments for you to chat with the team. And if you want to learn more, take a look at our webinars here.

With our sister company, Re•think Travel Marketing, we are planning a roadshow for three regions of Portugal this September, visiting San Francisco, Seattle, Victoria, Winnipeg and Montreal. If you live in these regions, let me know. We are also planning a fam to Trentino, Italy for late September, early October. If you want to receive an invite let me know!

I hope you enjoy the remainder of your summer! We are here to assist!

- Lights! Camera! Action! With its deep blues seas, its lush, verdant countryside, and its ragged rocky terrain, it's hardly surprising that Malta has played host to so many blockbuster film shoots! Mдина, has been King's Landing in Game of Thrones, as well as being featured in the Count of Monte Cristo!

Having scenes from Game of Thrones, Gladiator, By the Sea, Troy, Captain Phillips, World War Z and many other all-time film greats, one can only wonder what the next blockbuster to hit the Maltese shores will be.

The Sound of (Icelandic) Music

If you think Bjork is all that Iceland has to offer in the way of music, then you really need to check out Pearls of Icelandic Song at Reykjavik's incredible Harpa Concert Hall during the summer and year-end holiday seasons.

Under the artistic direction of Bjarni Thor Kristinsson, the show presents a selection of classical Icelandic songs and folk music about elves, spirits, outlaws, nature, love and much more. The singers also explain the stories behind the songs and their composers.
