A Feed For Every Horse

Producers Cooperative carries a full line of performance proven horse feeds to fit your equine program. The Producers Remuda horse feed line contains beneficial ingredients; such as, Bio-Plex organic trace minerals, Sel-Plex selenium yeast, and Yea-Sacc yeast culture. These ingredients help with absorption, mineral retention, digestion, and feed efficiency to give your equine friend the edge they need to perform. We also carry Purina horse feeds, with Triple Crown feed products soon to come. Triple Crown offers a low starch, low carb option for equine of all disciplines. Call the Feed Division's direct line at 979-778-2864 to learn more about all of the horse feed's we have to offer!
